PASTOR'S THOUGHTS

What a wonderful Holy Week! We gathered to remember the greatest witness of God's love for humanity. We remembered Jesus' last supper and communion with his disciples on Thursday! We remembered the "Power of the Resurrection" on Sunday! I thank all who participated up front and behind the scenes to make it such a blessing of God!

Jesus Christ has made a way for all believers to be reconciled to God and as believers, we have been empowered to be God's ambassadors. Our assignment is to share the grace and truth that comes through Jesus Christ! It is sharing God's love with the world. It is using your gifts to make God's love known in and outside the walls of the church building.

What a wonderful blessing to hear the testimony of Jessie Cheadle, Jr.! Answering God's call, he shared his commitment to a mission honoring our WWII, Korean, and Vietnam Veterans and surviving spouses. His goal is to provide complimentary landscaping services to those who are not as able to do that work themselves. We expect to share more details about this as they develop.

God's love abounds throughout the congregation. I want to offer special thanks on behalf of the Congregation to Frances Finrock for expressing her creative talents as seen on Resurrection Sunday morning, with paraments adorning our choir members, our Pastor, Communion Table, and altar podium. YOU GO GIRL!!!

I encourage you to hear the messages from Holy Week (Maundy Thursday and Resurrection Sunday). They will be posted on our website at: <http://www.firstchristian-aiken.org>.

God's love,

Sotello

CONGREGATIONAL THANKS

We want to express our thanks, both to church member Joanne Caldwell and Sam Stevens of Palmetto Nursery and Florist, for the colorful and beautiful pansies that were donated by Mr. Stevens. Thank you Joanne, for your heartfelt and unyielding efforts toward beautifying our church grounds!

Thanks to our congregation for contributing to our “community outreach” by decorating the church cross with all the lovely flowers on Easter Sunday.

PLEASE CONSIDER

We have received a donation of an AED (Automated External Defibrillator) which is located in the Fellowship Hall. This machine is used during life threatening cardiac emergencies. It is to everyone’s advantage to know how to use it. We are blessed to have Pat Wilson (certified by the National Safety Council) who is willing to conduct demonstrations and teach us how to react in an emergency until first responders arrive. Please let Caroline know if you are interested in attending a demonstration.
