PERSONAL MISSION STATEMENT

Greetings Church family! I just participated in an enriching teaching/learning and dialogue experience on "Congregational Systems" at Lexington Theological Seminary, Lexington, KY. I am writing while in the car returning to South Carolina. Now let me be clear that I am on the passenger side while a colleague is driving – smile! There were several helpful insights I gained from the course. One of the important points to share is about having a personal mission statement.

All of us have a purpose in life whether we acknowledge it or not. It helps to know what that is and to be able to succinctly articulate it in a way that offers real meaning. My personal mission statement is rooted in the Great Commandment, equipping for ministry, and a spirit of generosity. I share this with you here:

I am called to Exalt Christ, Empower Others, Engage Creation, Employ S. E. L. F. and Enjoy Generosity!

Deeper insight into the meaning of this personal mission statement to me means exalting Christ according to the Great Commandment to love the Lord with everything I've got.

Empower others directs me to help guide and encourage Christ in others. It is to love my neighbor.

Engage creation is a call for me to be a good steward of all that God has created. Recall that "God so loved the world" and what God created was and is "good".

Employ self is meaningful to me as an acrostic for employing my S. E. L. F. I am called to be intentional about working on and attending to my spirit (heart); emotions (soul/mind); lips (what I say & do) and feet (where I go) in the service of Christ! The Bible says to love your neighbor as [you love] yourself.

Enjoy Generosity reminds me that the Lord loves a cheerful giver. God is a God of abundance who freely gives us everything we need to live into our purpose. So I live into my purpose with joy in appreciating and sharing the gifts that God has given me.

Think about your purpose right now. Make note of it in your mind and write your own statement in a sentence or two. If you'd like, feel free to send it to me to offer intercessory prayer for God's fresh anointing for you in "living into it!"

God's love,

Sotello

THANK YOU TO PAT WILSON

A BIG THANK YOU to Pat from the Congregation for demonstrating our AED machine. We learned a lot: 30 compressions, 2 breaths. We were instructed on what to do until emergency help arrives. We all managed to turn on the green lights. THANK YOU AGAIN, PAT!!

DWF NEWS

The Pie & Bake Auction at the June Carry-In yielded $188. This money will be donated to The Center For African American History, Arts and Culture (Black History Museum) here in Aiken. Thank you to all who participated!

During the month of July, the DWF will be collecting items for "Lydia Bags" which are given to women undergoing Cancer treatment. Donations of items such as pens, notebooks, hand creams, candies, lotions, Kleenex purse packs, etc., will be gratefully accepted and appreciated.

SOUTHEASTERN CHILDREN'S HOME SUNDAY AUGUST 28TH AT 9:30 AM IN THE SANCTUARY

Robert Kimberly, Exec. Director of SECH, will be sharing with us an updated program concerning The Southeastern Children's Home. The last time Mr. Kimberly spoke to us, the program was extremely informative and moving in regards to their services to help distressed children and families. Often the children have never experienced the normalcy of a family life.
